

BAKING AS THERAPY

Sarah Burt brings new meaning to the words baked goods. Every cake, pie, and sticky bun is made from scratch with no preservatives. Each recipe is as unique as the story behind Chase the Dream Baking Company. In Sarah's kitchen, quality is king. All ingredients are locally sourced whenever possible. And a portion of each sale is donated to UpReach Therapeutic Riding Center. Sample Sarah's wares and you, too, will be chasing the dream of these delectable desserts.

ABOUT CHASE THE DREAM

Chase the Dream Baking Company is the culmination of Sarah Burt's 25-plus years in the food and beverage industry. After running a successful in-home baking business—at the urging of her family, friends, and loyal customers—Sarah found the perfect commercial kitchen in which to grow her company. Located in her home town of Hollis, New Hampshire, Chase the Dream specializes in home-style desserts and treats that create lifelong memories, delivering to local customers, restaurants, farm stands, and grocery stores.

THE CHASE IN THE DREAM

Chase the Dream is a labor of heart and talent, born at a time when Sarah felt strongly called to give back in some way. Sarah has loved horses even longer than she's loved the smell of cake rising in the oven. As a volunteer with UpReach Therapeutic Riding Center, she was rewarded by the smiles and newfound confidence on the faces of handicapped and at-risk riders—supported by their equine friends. Sarah has often felt that confidence in the saddle herself, and understands just how magical the relationship between horse and rider can be. It was while riding a very special horse named Chase that she experienced an epiphany:

to put her love for baking, horses, and people all together. As a result, a portion of each sale at Chase the Dream is lovingly donated to the good work at UpReach Therapeutic Riding Center in Goffstown, New Hampshire.

★ Sarah is grateful to her mother and all the other bakers in her life who took the time to share their secrets. She proudly carries on in their footsteps, baking from scratch with the purest ingredients.
